In the 68 years since D-Day, only three times did our president fail to go to the D-Day Monument in Washington and honor our soldiers killed during the Invasion. All three were Barack Obama in 2010, Barack Obama in 2011, and Barack Obama in 2012.

This is year, instead of honoring our soldiers killed during the invasion, he made a campaign trip on Air Force 1 to California to raise funds for the upcoming election.

We hope all veterans who voted for him in '08 show their veteran pride and vote instead for Mitt Romney in 2012.
